Associate Degree Program

PHYSICAL THERAPIST ASSISTANT

ABOUT THIS PROGRAM

Carrington’s Physical Therapist Assistant program prepares students to function as entry-level practitioners under the supervision of a physical therapist. The program is a mix of formal instruction, laboratory practice and hands-on clinical experience.

Students who successfully complete the Physical Therapist Assistant program are eligible to take the National Physical Therapy Examination (NPTE) for PTAs*. To work as a physical therapist assistant in California, graduates must also pass the California Law Examination (CLE), which relates to the practice of physical therapy. The program culminates in an Associate of Science degree.

Information about graduation rates, median debt of students who completed the program and other important data can be found at carrington.edu/sci/pta-dg.

Program availability varies by location. Carrington College reserves the right to update information as it becomes available. For the most updated information, visit carrington.edu.
